

CARLOS ELLIOT

New Live Session Video "Hoop Of Life"

"Racial discrimination has been promoted in the American continent and in the world, communities from the south and the north meet and summon the union in music and love."

During his most recent United States tour, Carlos Elliot recorded this live session video with the participation of members of the Lakota community, playing a song that first was a prayer and comes from the indigenous world, brings a message from a prophecy of the first nation people of the north.
